

Contents

Reclaiming Catholic History: Series Introduction	xiii
Chronology of The Early Church (33–313)	xvii
Map	xxii
Introduction: The Scholar’s New Clothes	xxv
Chapter 1: The Era of the Apostles	1
Up Close and Personal: Stephen	4
You Be the Judge: Weren’t Christian holidays originally pagan holidays?	8
Up Close and Personal: Clement of Rome	11
You Be the Judge: Don’t some books of the New Testament present Christ as divine and others present him as human?	17
Chapter 2: The Era of the Apostolic Fathers	19
Up Close and Personal: Ignatius of Antioch	22
Up Close and Personal: Polycarp of Smyrna	26
You Be the Judge: Didn’t people in the early Church live much shorter lives than we do now?	33
You Be the Judge: Isn’t all sin equal in the eyes of God?	37
Chapter 3: The Era of the Apologists	39
Up Close and Personal: Justin Martyr	41
You Be the Judge: Wasn’t original Christian faith ruined by Greek thought?	45
Up Close and Personal: The Martyrs of Lyons and Vienne	50
You Be the Judge: Hasn’t Christianity always taught that when you die, only your soul goes to heaven for eternity?	54

Chapter 4: The Era of the Theologians	57
You Be the Judge: Wasn't the idea of orthodoxy foreign to Christianity until the fourth century?	64
Up Close and Personal: St. Perpetua	73
You Be the Judge: Didn't the Church silence the voices of people who didn't follow the dominant party line?	76
Chapter 5: The Era of the Sacraments	79
Up Close and Personal: St. Valentine	86
Up Close and Personal: St. Lawrence	88
You Be the Judge: Isn't the Christianity of the early Church different from what developed later as Catholicism?	94
Chapter 6: The Era of Tribulation	97
Up Close and Personal: St. Sebastian	98
You Be the Judge: Isn't the historical Jesus different from the Christ of the Christian religion?	101
You Be the Judge: Didn't Constantine create the marriage of church and state?	105
Just the Beginning	109
Notes	113
For Further Reading	119
Index	121