

CONTENTS

Foreword by Haley Stewart.....	xiii
Prologue	xv

PART ONE: ANCIENT MASTERS (300–1100)

Introduction.....	3
1. Quiet Your Head and Hear with Your Heart
Teachings from the Desert Tradition on the Flight to Freedom ..	5
2. Run Away from Evil and Run toward the Good
Evagrius Ponticus on the Battle between Virtue and Vice	15
3. Seek the Lord and Let Yourself Be Found
Gregory of Nyssa on the Soul's Ascent to God	25
4. Say Yes to Grace and Change Your Life
Augustine of Hippo on Conversion of Heart	35
5. Rejoice Always and Give Thanks
John Cassian on Unceasing Prayer	47
6. Remain at the Same Time Contemplative and Active
Benedict of Nursia on Balancing Worship and Work	55
7. Live in Awe of the Mystery
Pseudo-Dionysius on the Way of Unknowing	65
8. Commit Yourself to Climb Up to God
John Climacus on the Path to Paradise	73
9. Learn How to Be with and for Others
Maximus the Confessor on the Meaning of Love	85

10. Acknowledge Your Need for Direction and Become More Compassionate
Gregory the Great on Pastoral Care	95

PART TWO: MEDIEVAL MASTERS
(1100–1600)

Introduction	107
11. Walk in the Truth of Who You Are
Bernard of Clairvaux on Loving God and Growing in Humility	109
12. Be Friends of God and Then Befriend One Another
Aelred of Rievaulx on Spiritual Friendship	119
13. Depend on God for Everything
Francis and Clare of Assisi on the Primacy of Poverty	129
14. See in Every Ending a New Beginning
Bonaventure on the Soul's Journey into God	139
15. Let Go and Let God Lead You
Jan van Ruysbroeck on the Gift of Spiritual Espousal	151
16. Always Say “Yes, Father” with Jesus
Catherine of Siena on True Obedience	161
17. Bow in Awe before the Mystery
The Cloud of Unknowing on the Work of Contemplation	173
18. Trust in Divine Providence
Julian of Norwich on Suffering and Joy	183
19. Live in Humility, Detachment, and Fraternal Charity
Teresa of Avila on the Way of Perfection	193
20. Bear Your Cross and Seek Intimacy with the Trinity
John of the Cross on the Movement from Purgation to Union with God	205

PART THREE: MODERN MASTERS
(1600–2000)

Introduction	217
21. Relish the Richness of the Ordinary
Francis de Sales on the Devout Life	219
22. Celebrate the Sacrament of the Present Moment
Brother Lawrence of the Resurrection on the Practice of the Presence of God	227
23. Follow in Faith the Way, the Truth, and the Life
John Wesley on Christian Perfection	235
24. Let Your Life Be One Act of Love
Thérèse of Lisieux on the Little Way of Spiritual Childhood	245
25. Enjoy Fulfilling Whatever Duty God Gives You
Jean-Pierre de Caussade on Abandonment to Divine Providence	255
26. Praise and Glorify Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
Elizabeth of the Trinity on Intimacy with God	263
27. Cleanse Your Perception and See What Is Really Real
Evelyn Underhill on Practical Mysticism	273
28. Let God Lead You to the Dawn of a New Day
Thomas R. Kelly on the Light Within	283
29. Take Up Your Cross and Follow Jesus
Dietrich Bonhoeffer on the Cost of Discipleship	293
30. Foster the Connection Between Sanctity and Service
Thomas Merton on Integrating Contemplation and Action	305
Epilogue	315
Acknowledgments	321
Bibliography of Major Sources	323
Notes	331
Index	355