

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----|
| Preface | ix |
| Introduction: Welcome to a Course on Faith and Science! | xi |
| Unit I: Science in the Light of Faith | 1 |
| 1. The Navigation Process | 3 |
| 2. What Does Christianity Contribute to Science? | 27 |
| Unit II: Questions in the Physical Sciences | 43 |
| 3. Does the Big Bang Prove God? | 45 |
| 4. How Should We Understand the World of Atoms? | 65 |
| 5. Does Quantum Mechanics Allow for Free Will? | 89 |
| Unit III: Questions in the Biological Sciences | 111 |
| 6. Did We Evolve from Atoms? | 113 |
| 7. Can a Christian Accept the Theory of Evolution? | |
| Part 1: Theology and Evolution | 131 |
| Part 2: The Science of Evolution | 154 |
| 8. When Does a Human Life Begin? | 193 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Summary: We Don't Need to Choose between Faith and Science | 207 |
| Glossary | 213 |
| Notes | 223 |
| Index | 233 |