

Contents

A Brief Introduction: Create an Inner Workshop	1
Part I: Twenty Lessons in Personal Inner Formation
1. Live (Don't Only Say) a Simple Prayer	7
2. Rediscover the Lost Virtue of the Desert	10
3. Look Outward Too	13
4. Appreciate the Strength of Inner Simplicity	16
5. When Invited, Enter the Doorway to Awe	18
6. Cultivate a Reflective Spirit	23
7. Avoid "Spiritual Alzheimer's"	26
8. Honor the Spirituality of Letting Go	28
9. Mine the Wisdom of Spiritual Sadness	31
10. Adjust Your Inner Lens	34
11. Discover Both Your Gifts and Growing Edges	38
12. Expand Your Rituals of Reverence	41
13. Welcome the Softening Place of Humor	44
14. Establish a "Little Rule" of Your Own	46
15. Understand the Important Role of Death . . . While You're Still Alive!	48
16. Be More Attuned to the Power of Your Attitude and Self- Talk	50

17. Practice Faithfulness . . . and Let God Take Care of the Residue53

18. Savor Some Silence Each Day55

19. Emulate the Right Persons to Follow the Path of Grace58

20. Take a Different Route to Self-Knowledge: Intrigue61

Part II: The Call and Three Doorways

Where the Twenty Lessons Are Leading Us67

Part III: Developing Your Own Inner Workshop of Virtue

A Month of Simple Questions and Exercises77

Conclusion: A Few Final Words of Encouragement109

References113