

Contents

Foreword to the New Edition by Susan Muto vii

Preface to the Original French Edition by Monseigneur
Alfred Baudrillart xi

Introduction xvii

Author's Note to the Third French Edition xxi

1. Ancestral Origin—Alençon—The Father and Mother of Thérèse Martin 1
2. Early Infancy of “Little Thérèse” 21
3. Growing Virtue of Thérèse—Her First Great Trial 39
4. Lisieux—Les Buissonnets 65
5. The Benedictine Convent—Strange Malady—First Communion—Sudden Spiritual Transformation 85
6. Vocation to Carmel—Struggle against Exterior Obstacles which Restrained Her—Journey to Italy 113
7. The Carmel of Lisieux—Thérèse As Postulant, and Her Reception—Terrible Trial—Progress in Detachment 151
8. Profession—Apparent Severity of God, and the Disinterested Love of His Servant—Gracious Gift of Jesus to Thérèse—Poetry of the Young Carmelite—Correspondence on Spiritual Matters—Céline's Entrance 177
9. Interior Life at the Carmel—Divine Love the Source of All Thérèse's Perfection—Qualities of This Love and Its Principal Manifestations—Thérèse's Devotion to the Blessed Virgin and the Saints 203

10. Charity of St. Thérèse de l'Enfant Jésus towards Her Neighbour—Her Devotion to the Novices under Her Direction—Her Spiritual Help to Two Missionaries 221
11. Suffering's Rôle in the Providence of God Discerned and Interpreted by Thérèse—Her Perfect Practice of Monastic Virtues Properly So Called: Poverty, Chastity, and Obedience—Her Love of the Cross the Condition and Consequence of Her Love for Jesus 251
12. Idea, Advantages, and Necessity of the "Little Way of Spiritual Childhood" 265
13. The Virtues of the "Little Way" in Practice: Humility, Simplicity, Spiritual Poverty, Confidence—Thérèse's Consecration to Merciful Love, and Its Effect on Her Life 279
14. Beginning of Her Illness—The Histoire d'une Ame—The "Novissima Verba"—End of Exile—Funeral Ceremonies 301
15. First Phases of Her Glorification—Continuous "Rain of Roses"—Sœur Thérèse de l'Enfant Jésus Raised to the Altar 333

Appendix A: Unpublished Letters of St. Thérèse de l'Enfant Jésus to the Guérin Family 373

Appendix B: Documentary Evidence 385

Notes 391

Index 418