

Contents

Preface.....	ix
Acknowledgments.....	xii
A Note on the Typography.....	xiii
Introduction.....	1
Part I: The Archaeology of Faith: A Personal Exploration.....	8
1. Cuprae Fanum : At the Temple of the Goddess Cupra	11
2. The Arrival of the Romans.....	15
3. Emidio, Bishop and Martyr and Saint.....	19
4. Benedictine Presence and the Church of San Martino.....	24
5. Saracen Pirates.....	28
6. Working the Land.....	32
7. Francis of Assisi and the Franciscans.....	37
8. The Church, the State, and the Challenge of Faith	45
9. Honest Faith, the Inquisition, and the Reformation	53
10. Teatro dell'Arancio , Orange Tree Theater: Renaissance, Scientific Revolution, Enlightenment, and Romanticism	63
11. Immigration: Struggle, Promise, and Hope	71
12. Faith Given and Then Claimed: Early Years.....	86
13. Considered Faith: Studying Faith for Understanding and Communication.....	98

14. Transformed and Transforming Faith108
15. Elements of an Agenda for the Continuing
Journey of Faith125

Part II: A Theological Account of Faith: Organizing and Understanding Our Experience.....130

16. Foundations of Faith: Our Capacity to Receive God’s Word and Believe.....133
17. Foundations of Faith: God’s Revelation and Self-Communication.....135
18. Our Response to God’s Revelation:
Our Act of Faith and Believing in God.....137
19. The Process of Faith: From the Act of Faith to Faith’s Consummation139
20. Particular Aspects of Faith146

Part III: Biblical Accounts of Faith: Expanding
Our Experience.....158

21. Nicodemus: A Believer is Reborn162
22. The Samaritan Woman: The Unlikely Believer
Who Became a Fervent Evangelist.....174
23. Martha: Love, Death, and New Faith in Jesus183
24. Thomas: The Apostle of Certain Faith193

Afterword.....202
Notes203